Slavery believed in by the South and abhorred by the North was setting North and South at enmity. The United States of America was becoming sectional. In 1860 slavery tinged everything. It was in the midst of this growing discord that the presidental election of 1860 came, and was what we call the climax, and a million and a half. When the end came the cost of the fearful struggle had been six hundred thousand North-

HIGHWAY BULLETIN

State Highway Commissioner, James R. Marker, to Issue Monthly Bulle tin-To Contain Many Interesting

Beginning the new year the State Highway Department will publish a monthly bulletin which will be sent to good roads enthusiasts throughout ne state without charge. The bulle tin is to contain many interesting features, its object being to get into closer touch with rural conditions, and to stimulate interest in the good roads movement. The bulletin will be the most complete of its kind ever issued in this state, will be printed in attractive form, and will be eagerwatched for by good roads advo-

One of the interesting features of the January number will be an ex-planation of the dragging act, which becomes effective in January, 1914. The provisions of the act require each board of township trustees to appoint one of their members as dragging uperintendent whose duty is to divide the township into dragging districts, of no more than six miles of road to each district, and to supervise the dragging of all the earth and gravel roads in such districts.

before the revival closed. They left last Sunday night for Chicago where they will again engage in their studies. Mrs. Jarboe, who had charge of the song service, was also a great help to her husband and to the vicinity but as she could not stay with us any longer we are glad that Elder Jarboe can stay with us and continue the good work that is in progress.

Come out to the services and bring others with you, tell your neighbors and friends and induce them to attend; help the work along by the presence of yourself and your friends. Remember the song service which will now be conducted by the local singers; come and come early. Sono service at 7:00, preaching at 7:30, every evening.

McMaster's excellent "History of the People of the United States". This brings Professor McMaster's history to the Civil War period. There is also a new book on China entitled "China's Story" by W. E. Griffis.

For young people there is "The Story of Our Navy for Young Americans" by W. J. Abbot and a true story of life among the Indians entitled "With the Indians in the Rock-Jies" by J. W. Shultz. Of other books added for young people there is an illustrated "Pictures That Every Child Should Know" by Dolores Bacon, and a book descriptive of the organization of Camp Fire Girls, the girls' auxiliary to the Boy Scouts. A second copy has been added of R. L. McNaught's "Christmas Selections".
